Women Box is an evening of music theatre celebrating the introduction of women's boxing into the Commonwealth Games. Working with Jennifer Walshe, the Bozzini Quartet and Former World Champion Female Boxer, Cathy "The Bitch" Brown, Size Zero Opera will be premiering this new multimedia theatre work alongside a new work celebrating the rise of the female conductor. Book-ending these two new works, the Bozzini Quartet will be performing the rarely performed Mauricio Kagel String Quartet's I and II. Contains some adult content.

There will be an unticketed pre-performance talk on both nights at 18.15-18.40 in the St Pancras Room Kings Place, please join us.

The development of Women Box is supported by Sound and Music's Composer-Curator programme.
